Heads up, all you Jesse Malin fans: The rocker has a very busy week coming up.

His new album, "Glitter in the Gutter," drops Tuesday, and he's celebrating several times over. First, there's a release party at midnight at Bowery Ballroom in New York City. Then there's his appearance on Q104.3 between 9 p.m. and midnight Sunday, where he'll premiere some new tunes and talk about the record. He's also set to stop by Conan O'Brien on Monday — and he's on the March cover of Spin.

But all that pales in comparison to his live performance at Vintage Vinyl on Tuesday night. Preordering "Glitter" at the store guarantees admittance to the show. How can you beat that?

Jesse Malin, 7 p.m. Tuesday, Vintage Vinyl, 51 Lafayette Road, Fords. (732) 225-7717.
