Jack's Mannequin may hail from California, theAUDITION from Illinois and We Are The Fury from Ohio, but these three bands have something in common.

They're all converging at the Jersey Shore tonight — the Stone Pony, to be exact.

The gig is officially part of Jack's Mannequin's West Coast Winter Tour. It may feel like spring outside — and this technically is the East Coast — but the tour began in January in Tempe, Ariz., so we'll give them a pass. This time.

We Are The Fury is touring in support of its first album, "Venus," which is set to drop May 22. Jack's Mannequin is still promoting "Everything in Transit"; Ditto theAUDITION's "Controversy Loves Company."

Jack's Mannequin, theAUDITION and We Are The Fury, doors open 5 p.m. today, Stone Pony, 913 Ocean Ave., Asbury Park. $20. (732) 502-0600 or www.stoneponyonline.com.
