BAND TO WATCH: AS TALL AS LIONS

Whenever my wife wears the As Tall As Lions t-shirt she totally stole from me, I wonder when I'll get to hear new music from the Massapequa indie rockers.

Listening to the boys' lush new album (and you should, now, at Absolute Punk), I can't believe they're from Long Island. All swirling guitars and dreamy harmonies, they have a serious Brit-rock/shoegaze sensibility reminiscent of Doves. Plus, Daniel Nigro can really sing. We expect big things.

ATAL were kind enough to let us exclusively premiere an MP3 from the album:

As Tall As Lions - "Ghost Of York" (MP3)

If you dig it -- and we hope you do -- load that stream and don't miss "Love Love Love (Love Love)," which has a soulful Jeff Buckley "Everybody Here Wants You" vibe.
