WE ARE THE FURY — VENUS

We Are the Fury hearkens back to the showmanship and androgyny of '70s rock gods like David Bowie and Queen. Not just for retro music lovers, Venus (One Big Spark/East West) has a modern twist and more than its fair share of sassy riffs and high-octane energy. "Now You Know" will bring out your party-hungry alter ego, while the ballsy rock ballad "You're My Halo (Prom Song)" proves that even their softer side has bite.
