WE ARE THE FURY

Venus

One Big Spark/East West

Welcome to Venus? Man, that's the last time I let you drive! We might as well have a beer before we turn around so let's hit that live music joint over there. These guys wear more make-up than your kid sister! ... And they kind of sound like David Bowie. Or that dead guy, uh, Marc Bolan of T. Rex. What, you think they sound like My Chemical Romance? Okay, but I say Mott the Hoople. Either way, listen to "Camera Tricks" over and over on the way home.
