

THE PARLOR MOB

AND YOU WERE A CROW

PARLOR MOB IS:

MARK MELICIA – VOCALS
DAVE ROSEN – GUITAR
PAUL RITCHIE- GUITAR
NICK VILLAPIANO – BASS
SAM BEY - DRUMS

OVERVIEW:

"It's going to be rock 'n roll the way it was done then, but rock 'n roll in the way that it needs to be done now. Relevant to the way things are going now in the world and what's going on- political, spiritual, everything,"

- Mark Melicia /Vocals

It is quite fitting that the band derived its moniker from a notorious 19th century gang of the same name. Around the mid 1800s, the historical New York hoodlums were commissioned by other street gangs to incite riots. Today, these five musical renegades spark a similar explosion, but with verbose riffs, thought provoking vocals and a smooth yet raucous groove. Formed in 2004, The Parlor Mob hone in on the quintessential New York rock 'n roll sound with a vibe that keeps things fresh as they conjure a vibrant mystique and smoky blues sensibility. They eschew convention and boundaries in favor of pushing the envelope. Recently named one of iTunes BEST NEW ARTISTS of 2008, they can play beautiful acoustic songs or come out swinging with the best of the rock 'n roll bands out there.
