

A Kiss Could Be Deadly Photo By Gar

BROADWAY CALLS

Label: Adeline [adelinerecords.com]

On the agenda: "We'll be touring the western half of the States and playing some pretty amazing shows. Our full-length is also being re-released on LP and CD via Adeline, and in May we get to go overseas for the first time." Favorite place to play: Redding, CA. Favorite city-to-city activity: "Every morning we wake up and listen to Ron and Fez on XM." Actual MySpace comment: "On our last tour we kicked out a guitar player that was causing a lot of problems. The next day we got a comment from one of his friends in Portland that said, 'You guys suck without Chris.' We all got a pretty good laugh at that." In their own words: "We're a three piece pop-punk band, and we're just stoked to be able to do what we do. Our songs are really personal to us, but it means the world when we see people singing along at shows. We spend 23 1/2 hours of every day either waiting to play, or recovering from a show. During the half hour, when the room goes off and the kids are louder than the PA, it's the greatest feeling in the world. That's all we dream about." Liz's take: I didn't know good pop-punk still existed, until I heard Broadway Calls.

ww36

SOUNDBITES

QUICK DRAWS WITH 19 BANDS BY LIZ VAN PAY IN THE MIDST OF TUMBLEWEEDS AND SANDSTORMS, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE WONKA VISION OFFICE, WV PRESENTS A BONANZA OF BOUNTY-LADEN INTERVIEWS WITH SOME OF OUR FAVORITE NEW & OLD BANDITS (AHEM...BANDS).