Mayday Parade to headline Utica College's Moosestock

Observer-Dispatch

UTICA – Emo-indie rockers Mayday Parade will headline the fourth annual Moosestock Saturday, May 3, at Utica College.

The day-long music festival begins at noon behind the Strelbel Student Center. Bands will perform all day, and Mayday Parade will take the stage at 8 p.m.

Mayday Parade, a Tallahassee-based quintet, has played on the Warped tour and will do so again this summer.

Also performing will be Fools & Horses of Baltimore, Holding Solace of Syracuse, Honor Bright of Syracuse, Arms of Another of Utica, The Travis Rocco Band of Cortland, and The Doppler Effect of New Hartford.

Admission is free.
