

TOMORROW

Biscuits and jam

Philadelphia frat parties got them started 15 years ago, but the Disco Biscuits now bring their electronic and jam-band blend of soul, blues, techno, rock, jazz, and classical sounds to a much wider audience. It's all about the dance party, and since the band's sound has been dubbed "trance fusion" and "bisco" — how about another blend called transfisco? Get in a party mood by listening to "Sweatbox" from their new CD, "Planet Anthem." March 19 at 8 p.m. $25, $27. House of Blues, 15 Lansdowne St., Boston. 800-745-3000. www.livenation.com

