THE OSCARS PARTIES

The stars bask in the after-gold

Before the after-party got underway, Nile Rodgers and Chic took to the stage. "Let's see if Craig can hot-tub time machine the room back to the disco period," Rodgers said as he called actor Craig Robinson to the stage.

As Chic performed "Good Times," Elton John walked on stage to freestyle on the keyboard. Guests were invited on stage to dance and witness the music legend's quick fingers on the keyboard firsthand.
