JUSTINE SKYE

AGE: 19
HOMETOWN: Brooklyn
"The most challenging part of being in the music industry is getting your name out there and having people respect you."

KAYA STEWART

AGE: 15
HOMETOWN: Los Angeles
"My debut album speaks to the experience of being a young teenage girl—it is such a vulnerable time in your life. I was just writing what I was feeling, and I think that really resonates with those who are my age."

SEINABO SEY

AGE: 24
HOMETOWN: Halmstad, Sweden
"Winning Newcomer of the Year at the Grammis [a Swedish version of the Grammys] was unexpected, but definitely a nice exclamation mark on my career."

LOUD & CLEAR

From POP-PUNK PHENOMS to SOULFUL SWEDISH SONGSTRESSES, meet seven singers who are shaking up the music scene. PHOTOGRAPHED BY GIAMPAOLO SGURA.

ADIA VICTORIA

AGE: 27

HOMETOWN: Campobello, South Carolina
"I grew up Seventh-day Adventist, which is a very religious lifestyle. Secular music didn't come into my life until I was 13, when I heard The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill. It was the first album that spoke to me."

BEA MILLER

AGE: 16

HOMETOWN: Maplewood, New Jersey
"The fans of my pop music are teenage girls, so I want them to understand that I'm one of them. I have the same struggles they do."

SYDNEY SIEROTA

AGE: 18

HOMETOWN: Los Angeles

"Even though it took a long time to get here, we finally discovered who [my band] Echosmith was and what we wanted to stand for."

SNOH AALEGRA

AGE: 28

HOMETOWN: Stockholm, Sweden
"The fact that Prince knows I exist is crazy, but to actually have a friendship with him is so insane. Sometimes I have to pinch myself."

In this story: hair, Franco Gobbi using Bumble and Bumble; makeup, Maud Lacombe using Nars; nails, Emi Kudo using Dior Vernis; set design, Bettie Adams for Mary Howard Studio; production, Suzy Kang for GE Projects.
