Q&A
JASON DERULO

THE SUPERSTAR POP SINGER IS HOTTER THAN EVER AS HE DROPS HIS FOURTH — AND BEST — ALBUM.

Jason named his new album Everything Is 4 because, "Everything is for my mom, everything is for my fans, everything is for proving to myself that I can do it. Everything is for a reason."

Jason will perform at Star's Hollywood Rocks Party at The Argyle in L.A. on April 15. For more on Jason, check out jasonderulo.com.

HE'S the fastest-rising star in pop, and prolific singer-songwriter Jason Derulo can thank his smash hits, last year's "Talk Dirty to Me" and his latest, "Want to Want Me," for launching him to the top. The latter track is one of the new songs on his fourth studio album, Everything Is 4, set to drop on June 2. Jason, 25, spoke to Star about his new music, his inspiration and his ideal mate.

Tell us about your next new single, "Get Ugly." It's about that ugly face you make when you hear that sick beat or something that just feels amazing. Just getting nasty and enjoying yourself.

What can we expect from the album? A lot of growth. I've been through so much in the past year, and I've been able to accept changes that were thrown my way and go with the flow.

What inspires you the most? My fans. I want them to find themselves in my stories. When I'm in the studio, we're a team. I always try to put my best foot forward because I know they're watching.

As a new judge on So You Think You Can Dance, what advice would you like to impart? Find what your true light is. What makes you different? What makes you shine? A lot of people chase a lot of other people's creativity to a fault. You can be influenced by somebody, but find what makes you special.

You've used Tinder to launch a single. Have you used the dating app yourself? I haven't. My cousins use it a lot. I see the fun that they're having and I get jealous, so I get to experience it that way. But it isn't really right for me because of the nature of what I do.

What type of woman are you looking for? I'm having a good time, enjoying life and relaxing. I'm open to dating as well, of course, but the girl I end up with has to have some similarities and some differences. I want somebody who likes going to restaurants and ordering a bunch of things to taste everything, and when they want to do something that I'm not used to doing, it's cool because I'm being introduced to different things. And nobody likes a dummy! —LINDSAY FARBER ★

HOT NEW ACTS

Star picks the best new acts on the verge of breaking out.

BREAK SCIENCE

New York City natives Adam Deitch plays drums and Borahm Lee is behind the keyboards as they take electronic dance music to the next level by fusing old-school hip-hop with their own cutting-edge style for danceable tracks with soul. Ultrahip music website Live For Live Music said of the duo, "There is a fluidity to Break Science that only comes with honest musicianship. It's not predictable drumming, but a metaphysical connection between performer and listener." iTunes.

LOU PINE

A throwback to dirty and soulful rock, this L.A.-based blues-rock trio formed in 2014, featuring Lou Pine on lead vocals and guitar, Joe Conner on drums and Ricky Bakken on bass. Their debut album, Teapot Dome Scandal, features eight gritty tracks drawing influences from Delta blues, Motown, R&B and classic rock. Set to explode, they already have a cult following around their home base of Southern California and brought the house down at the latest SXSW festival in Austin, Texas. iTunes, loupine.com

MÉNAGE

Led by three siblings — Gabriel, Basilio and Bela Ferreira — who split time growing up between Toronto and their native Portugal, the five-person power-pop band has been rocking out of their adopted home of L.A. since 2012. Boasting an eclectic sound that mixes influences from around the world with dreamy rhythms, high-energy guitar riffs and memorable lyrics, their tunes are made to be sung along to. iTunes, menagetheband.com
