July 5, 2017 (Burbank, CA) - Sheryl Crow releases a new single - "Long Way Back" available via all digital partners from her critically acclaimed album Be Myself. Crow has been touring non-stop in support of her latest album, which marks her return to her rock/pop roots. During her dazzling two-hour plus hit-filled shows, "Long Way Back" appears to have resonated deeply with her audience.

"To me, there's a little bit of sadness in the song," Crow says of the country-rock tune. "Sometimes you have to go so far away from who you are to find out what you really believe in." Watch Crow perform "Long Way Back" live at The Troubadour in Los Angeles here.

"Long Way Back" is the second single to be released from Crow's current album Be Myself, which has been heralded by such outlets as The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, Entertainment Weekly, Nylon, and Rolling Stone, which called it "her toughest and best in a decade" and "a full-blown return to her fierce rock-queen glory." Be Myself is available to purchase or stream here and available on vinyl at Barnes & Noble here.

Crow is profiled on Amazon's custom curated "Side by Side" series, where she will discuss each of the songs on Be Myself. Click here to listen.

Last week, Crow performed a triumphant sold-out show at the Beacon Theater in New York City, which Digital Journal called "impeccable" and performed the album's first single, "Halfway There," on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon - watch the performance here. Also this week, Crow took part in NBC's annual star-filled Macy's 4th Of July Fireworks® Spectacular, performing "Be Myself" and her beloved hit "Soak Up The Sun."
