Sheryl Crow has been on the road in support of Be Myself, her ninth studio album which has been hailed by critics as her strongest work in years:

“On Be Myself [Sheryl Crow] sounds more comfortable in her skin than ever before. And nine Grammys, 35 million U.S. album sales, and five platinum records into her career, why wouldn't Crow be happy being herself?” - Nylon

“Sometimes the comfort zone is where a musician belongs. That's the charm of 'Be Myself,' Sheryl Crow's pointedly titled new album, which gleefully and unabashedly returns to the sound of her hit albums from the 1990's... straightforward songs that don't hide their fondness for the Rolling Stones and the Beatles.” – Jon Pareles/The New York Times

“Sheryl Crow is fearless, liberated and every bit herself these days.” – Huffington Post

Earlier this week on October 23, Sheryl Crow performed a sold out show at the Fonda Theater in Los Angeles to benefit KCSN-FM and STOMP Out Bullying, the leading national anti-bullying organization in the country for kids and teens. To celebrate diversity and individuality with her fans, Sheryl is asking fans to share what “Be Myself” means to them by posting photos with the #BeMyself on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook starting today. The images will be featured on SherylCrow.com. Sheryl Crow’s upcoming tour dates are as follows.

Upcoming Tour dates:

Nov 02	Nashville, TN	Ryman Auditorium
Nov 10	Port Chester, NY	The Capitol Theatre
Nov 19	Nashville, TN	Scott Hamilton Event @ Bridgestone Arena
