November 28, 2017 (Burbank, CA) – Liam Gallagher’s debut solo tour of the U.S. has been nothing short of a triumph. To celebrate, Gallagher and band will perform his new single “Come Back To Me,” from his internationally acclaimed album As You Were, live on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon tonight. Tune into NBC stations at 11:35 P.M. ET/PT.

Gallagher’s sold out U.S. tour wraps November 30 at Union Transfer in Philadelphia. His U.K. tour begins just days later on December 3 in Leeds. His entire U.K. tour sold out in minutes, including a summer 2018 show at London’s massive Finsbury Park. Even more impressive, the chart-topping As You Were is the fastest-selling vinyl album in the past 20 years in Britain and has outsold the rest of the U.K. top 20 releases combined. Now certified Gold in the U.K. and approaching 50 million track streams at Spotify, the album also topped the charts in Ireland and claimed Top 10 chart positions in a further five countries. Soon after the album’s release, Gallagher was honored with two key titles at the Q Awards – Q Icon and Best Live Act.

In the U.S., critics and fans continue to respond in kind:

“Liam Gallagher is one of the best-known names in Britain. Last month Gallagher made his solo debut with As You Were. The world must have been ready for it.” – New York Times News Syndicate

“William John Paul Liam Gallagher... Even his name sounds like a supergroup. As You Were, Gallagher’s debut solo album, strikes a blow for axe lovers everywhere. It’s a welcome return for Gallagher, the last truly great rock star.” – People Magazine

“The outstanding, outspoken Liam Gallagher sticks to his roots in his solo debut As You Were. After all, when you’re one of the greatest front men of all time, why change?” – Nylon Magazine

“An invigorating rock ‘n’ roll record. The strut, the sneer and the soft-cantered love of a good tune are all on prominent display. Gallagher’s voice is still among the most distinctive in music.” – The Associated Press
