

BRANDY CLARK ANNOUNCES 2018 NORTH AMERICAN TOUR DATES

Headline Shows Kick Off On January 25 Followed By Tour With Dwight Yoakam In March And Sugarland Tour In May

Dates Include Grand Ole Opry on February 3 And Stagecoach Festival On April 28

January 11, 2017 (Burbank, CA) – Critically-acclaimed singer/songwriter Brandy Clark announces 2018 North American dates, which include tours with Dwight Yoakam and Sugarland. Later this month, Clark will play a series of headline shows with special guests titled “An Evening With Brandy Clark,” starting in Ridgefield, CT on January 25 and including Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, TN on February 3. Clark’s tour with Dwight Yoakam kicks off in the U.S. after a series of Canadian shows on March 11 in Grand Forks, ND. Her summer tour with Sugarland starts on May 25 in Augusta, GA. Tickets for all shows can be purchased here.

The Nashville, Tennessee based Clark received her first of an impressive six career GRAMMY nominations in 2013 in the Best Country Song category for co-writing the Miranda Lambert No. 1 hit “Mama’s Broken Heart.” Her talent as a storyteller has quickly propelled her into critical acclaim as one of Nashville’s best tunesmiths. Subsequently writing songs for Sheryl Crow, The Band Perry, Reba McEntire, LeAnn Rimes, Billy Currington, Darius Rucker, and Kacey Musgraves to name a few. In 2015, Brandy independently released her own debut album 12 Stories, which embraced by music lovers and critics alike and was subsequently nominated for two GRAMMYs including Best New Artist and Best Country Album. 12 Stories went on to be named “Best Album of 2013” by The Boston Globe, New York Magazine, NPR, The New York Post, and more. Brandy also won the 2014 CMA Song of the Year Award for “Follow Your Arrow,” which she co-wrote with Shane McAnally and Kacey Musgraves, and was also nominated for a CMA New Artist Of The Year that same year. 2016 brought the release of her sophomore album Big Day In A Small Town, which also garnered two GRAMMY nominations for Best Country Album and Best Country Solo Performance (“Love Can Go To Hell”) and once again topped critics’ “Best of ” lists including NPR, Rolling Stone, Entertainment Weekly, Billboard, among others thus cementing Clark as one of country music’s most talented artists, beloved by fans, critics, and fellow entertainers alike. Famed music critic and author, Ann Powers, calls Clark “a storyteller of the highest caliber.”
