The Head And The Heart are excited to announce a run of Spring 2018 co-headline dates with Nathaniel Rateliff & The Night Sweats. The tour kicks off at Northerly Island Amphitheatre in Chicago and includes shows at Nautica Pavilion in Cleveland, OH, Forest Hills Stadium in Queens, NY, and more. A full rundown of dates can be found below. All tickets go on sale

Friday, January 26 at 10:00AM local time with the exception of the Forest Hills show which goes on sale Friday, January 26 at 11:00AM ET.

Last Fall the band hit the road on a headline tour playing to packed audiences all over North America and playing some of the biggest festivals including Austin City Limits and Voodoo. This Spring the band will perform at Bottlerock, Innings Festival, Avetts At The Beach in Riviera Maya, Mexico as well as Sydney City Limits and a headline show at Corner Hotel in Victoria, AUS.

The Head And The Heart released their latest album Signs of Light in 2016. The record debuted at #5 on the Billboard 200 and #1 on the Rock Album Chart and they were the most played band at AAA in 2017. The Head And The Heart went on to play their hit single "All We Ever Knew" on Ellen, The Late Show With Stephen Colbert, CBS Saturday Morning, Conan, Jimmy Kimmel Live! and The Late Late Show With James Corden.

VIDEO EMBED

"The band's already-resplendent sundown set – the ultimate atmospheric cherry on top for uplifting ballads like "Another Story", "Let's Be Still", and "Rivers and Roads" – became even more glorious." -

Consequence of Sound, Top 10 Sets at Voodoo Festival 2017

"A marriage of memorable melodies, multi-part vocal harmonies and primarily acoustic instrumentation, The Head And The Heart's sound sometimes seems like it's refracting the twilight on a night like this."
